Personalities

CHADWICKMANAGEMENT

There are a few names that have been instantly recognisable on the world Fashion scene.

They are the faces that have been at the height of the Worlds top Fashion Designer runways.

These unique individuals are the designer's favourites, the ones they've brought back time and again to exemplify the style and sophistication that only a handful of Models can effortlessly exude.

Although essentially retiring from the international scene in 2003 Anneliese Seubert maintains an enviable reputation with the Worlds Leading designers and Style directors.

"Recently returned queen of the catwalk Anneliese Seubert has been a familiar site on the runways of Dior, Galliano, Lagerfeld and Gucci, longer than most."

Anneliese Seubert started her career as a finalist in the CHADWICK Dolly Covergirl competition and went on to win the Ford Supermodel competition in 1990.

Almost immediately Anneliese began to appear in the world's top Fashion Magazines including:
Italian, English, American, German and Australian Vogues. Also Italian, English and French Marie Claire's to name a few.
Paris and New York quickly became combined home bases for Anneliese where she became Australia's un official style ambassador.

However it was on the runway that Anneliese attained the highest reputation and acclaim from those that mattered in the Industry.
Her stoic demeanor encompassed on 5.11 inches of pure sophistication gliding down the premier runways of Paris, Milan and New York never failed to attract the attention that every designer counted on.

Anneliese was brought back to Australia in 1996 as special guest to launch the inaugural Mercedes Australian Fashion Week, and has had a presence in that event ever since.

With a degree from NYU on TV Field reporting and Production Anneliese relocated back to her beloved Australia in 2003 where she enjoys her passion for Cricket and Skiing.

Anneliese has appeared regularly for the following Designers:
Cristian Dior/Colette Dinigan, Alex Perry
/John Galliano/Alexander McQueen/
Karl Lagerfeld/Tom Ford/Calvin Klein/Givenchy/
Jean-Paul Gaultier/Yohji Yamamoto/Versace/Prada.

Anneliese continues to set the bench mark for Australia's models and is available for selected assignments.
