Chadwick Model Agency was thrilled when the beautiful young Jessica Hart won their Model Search competition with Dolly magazine back in 2000.

Discovered in a Melbourne shopping centre and convinced to enter the competition, 14 year old Jessica Hart immediately endeared herself to the industry with her determination to maintain a unique look that continues to set her apart.

Now based in New York while also working the London & Paris markets, Jessica has become one of the most recognized models in the world.

She has appeared in international campaigns for Guess and H+M and graced the cover of Australian Vogue on a number of occasions and shoots regularly for Victoria Secret.

With extensive editorial in Italian Elle, Black Book, Velvet, American Cosmopolitan, British Glamour and American Glamour among others also featuring in the highly prestigious Sports Illustrated Swimsuit issue and Australian GQ.

Jessica was proud to be named face of Iconic Aussie Swimwear brand "Seafolly" for their 09/10 and 10/11 summer campaigns. The first ever model to be the Face of consecutive seasons.

Jessica triumphed as the Face of Melbourne Fashion Festival in 2009 and was thrilled to sign on as an ongoing Fashion Ambassador for Myer.

Tapping into her unique personal style Jessica has also launched her own line of street wear "Neon Harts" through the General Pants Group which continues to gain impressive momentum and industry attention both locally and internationally.

With an ever increasing media focus from around the globe Jessica combines chameleon like beauty with a razor sharp approach to her career while maintaining a reputation as one of the most gracious and down to earth models on the international circuit.
