Personalities

CHADWICKMANAGEMENT

Karina launched her career as one of the most sought after models in the Australian Fashion Industry throughout the 90's.

After appearing in a myriad of commercials in both Australia and abroad Karina was selected and contracted to Channel 9's Sale of the Century as their new hostess.

Following "Sale" Karina appeared as a presenter on "Postcards" followed closely by the nine Lifestyle show "Body and Soul".

Karina's popularity has continued to rise, appearing in numerous publications and personal appearances firmly establishing her as one of Australia's most recognized and in demand personalities.

While studying for a diploma in Natural Therapies, combined with extensive acting training, Karina embodies true ability, real beauty and a thoughtful down to earth approach to an enviable career.

Karina has expanded her public appearances taking on MC roles for a number of Fashion and corporate events including Diet Coke and Fashions on the Fields for the AJC. Karina has an on going relation ship with Star City as their in house video Guide.

In 2005 Karina began her role with Foxtels "Select" channel where she interviews various Foxtel personalities and showcases what is coming up on Foxtel and Foxtel Digital and is also regular presenting Biography Channels Bio Pics.

In 2007 Karina continues her role on Foxtel and was chosen as the Face of ACP Magazines PR campaign for Pantene.

Karina embodies the image of Australia,s empowered professional women with a growing national appeal and a reputation for true professionalism, style and beauty.

Karina continues to broaden her demand and popularity in Australia's media and fashion industry while also making special appearances with husband Lochie Daddo.

Karina and husband Lochie became proud parents with the birth of their first child "Daisey" in June of 2005.
