

Kasia Z

Kasia Z is a media savvy, professional presenting talent with a lively and animated personality.

Having spent the past ten years in the modeling industry on both the Australian and European circuits, Kasia Z lives and breathes fashion. She has extended her love of fashion to roles within the media industry. She was appointed Backstage and Fashion Reporter for Fashion TV during Melbourne Fashion Week 2009 and was a Herald Sun panel member for Melbourne's Best Dressed List in 2008.

Kasia has had stints on all major television networks. One of the highlights was presenting the Myer Stocktake Sale on Today Tonight in her role as Guest Reporter. She was also appointed Guest Reporter for the Nine Network's A Current Affair alongside Rebecca Twigley and Lauren Philips for the 2008 Spring Racing Carnival, where she covered all the fashion from The Birdcage to the racetrack. Kasia Z has hosted the Fashion TV Diamond Model Awards and was the ambassador for the Fashion + Aid Ball in 2009.

Having spent a lot of time in front of the camera, Kasia is comfortable in front of the lens, but she is also comfortable behind the lens. She graduated from a multimedia degree focusing on film, radio and television and would love to be involved in the researching and producing process of her media endeavors eventually. Previously she has worked alongside the brightest stars and biggest names in Australia on stage and screen and has had extensive presenting training, including completing a NIDA presenting course.

Fashion is her background, but Kasia is an all rounder. She is comfortable and confident talking about travel, lifestyle and of course, sport! Kasia is no stranger to the sporting world. She was appointed Face and Ambassador of the 2006 Fosters Australian Formula One Grand Prix and presented the 2006 World Surfing Championship award to Kelly Slater.

Kasia Z is confident in front of the camera, crowds and celebrities. Her bubbly personality and dedication carries across all her ventures from on screen presenting to interviewing celebrities and modeling.
