CHADWICK MANAGEMENT

Discovered by Chadwick as part of the Dolly Magazine Competition at the age of 14, over the past 11 years Pia has carved a name for herself as one of Australia's most successful models.

Pia had made her mark both in print and television campaigns as well as fast becoming a favourite of Australia's top designer and labels. Pia has featured in many advertising campaigns including Myer, Australian Unity, Midas, Mossimo and Crown Casino.

Her commercial success is rapidly increasing, as she continues to be cast for the lead in both local and international release television commercials. Her naturally relaxed approach alongside her effortless beauty has allowed Pia to endorse a wide variety of products and brands ranging from Samsung, Honda, Cadbury Chocolate, Latina Pasta and Natural Organic Hair.

In 2009, Pia was named as Ambassador for Myer Fashions on the Field during the VRC Spring Racing Carnival.

Pia's profile continued to rise after being chosen as the ambassador for the 2010 Australia Formula One Grand Prix. Her television career is also continually expanding, joining Channel 9's Postcards as a presenter as well as landing the role of Maria in the upcoming Australian feature from Big Mamma's Boy.

Currently Pia presents Qantas in-flight entertainment and appears regularly on Channel 10's The Circle.
