

Tory Mussett

Victoria Mussett is proudly represented by Martin Walsh at Chadwick Management.

After an exhaustive nationwide search in 2000 Tory was selected to host Channel 10's Pepsi Chart and quickly made her mark on Australia's Television and Music industry.

With a keen interest in Drama and Music, Tory appeared in early acting roles in "Secret Men's Business", TV series "Murder Call" and a part in the pilot of "Flatchat". Before firmly focusing on her film work .Tory appeared in numerous commercials and an acclaimed underwater performance on Channel V for "The Joint" promo.

After a year of recording Pepsi Chart and interviewing the leading local and international stars of the Music industry Tory left to concentrate on her music work with her Band "Orpheus". Producing and recording the bands first song which received impressive attention and air play.

She appeared in the "Groove Terminator " film clip and has been involved in radio, regularly co hosting The Hot 30 on 2 Day FM.

With a developing and constant demand in both national and international projects Tory then devoted the majority of her time and focus to her passion for acting.

Tory appeared in the on going worldwide cable program "Crash Palace".

Her film work has included the role of Code Woman in "Matrix 11 – Reloaded", also roles in "Mission Impossible II" and " Safety in Numbers". Tory appeared in a pivotal role in the US feature film "Peter Pan" shot in Queensland and the lead role of Jessica in the US feature film "Boogeyman" shot in New Zealand.

In 2005 Tory appeared opposite William H Macy in Stephen Kings production of "Nightmares and Dreamscapes"

In 2006 Tory was also cast in the major Hollywood blockbuster "The Condemned" shot on the Gold Coast.

Firmly established as one of Australia's most popular and accomplished actors with writing and music experience Tory's considerable talents combined with 100% enthusiasm and contemporary looks place her at the forefront of Australia's in demand actors.

Enquiries regarding Tory should be directed to Martin Walsh at Chadwick Management on 8217 0144 or martin@chadwickma.com.au.

